

JULY 2016 ILDS NEWSLETTER

July is always an AWESOME month at ILDS—fun in the sun, Splash Days, Patriotic art activities, Chapel and time with our friends. With temperatures rising, please make sure you send your child with plenty of water, a healthy lunch, sunscreen & bug spray! Also, please check with the office on your account balance and try to get caught up on any late payments. With the transition to the weekly billing for the Sharks, it can get confusing. And, last but not least, if you haven't already done so, PLEASE make sure we have your child(ren)'s re-enrollment paperwork for the 2016/2017 School Year—we will open enrollment to new students on July 18—so make sure you reserve your spot!! The full registration/admission packet will be sent out in early August. We love our ILDS family and look forward to a fantastic, action-packed July!

WATER SAFETY

It can happen to anyone—anywhere—anytime. Never leave a child unattended around water. Maintain visual contact with your child at all times. VISIT COLIN'S HOPE FOR MORE LIFE-SAVING TIPS.

JULY FUNNIES:

- Steele asked Ms. Cailey, "Since it's summer, does it mean Ms. Nicole is coming back?" Ms. Cailey said, "Um...I don't think so but you can find her on facebook." Steele replied, "NAH! I'll just facetime her." (Koalas)
- Ms. Ashley told Lylah, "Hey there , stranger!" Lylah replied, "I'm not a stranger—I'm a girl!" (Koalas)
- Ms. Maria recently got engaged and received a beautiful, sparkly diamond ring. One day, when she was playing with Hazel, Hazel pointed to her ring and said, "WOOOOW!!" (Sea Turtles)
- At Vacation Bible School, "Joseph" would visit the kids each day and tell them a story. Easton told everyone, "I want Jesus. Joseph is going to bring us to Jesus." (Tree Frogs)
- After the 4th of July, Penny was telling us all about her weekend and the firework show she got to see. Ms. Claudia asked her, "Where did you watch the firework show?" and without skipping a beat, she replied, "At Firework Park." (Penguins)
- While the kids were transitioning from the gym back to their room, Ms. Gwen heard someone throwing a fit and screaming. She asked, "Who is screaming?" Immediately, the screaming stopped and Cora looked at Ms. Gwen and said, "ME!" (Starfish)
