HAPPY OCTOBER! At ILDS, we are a team of Christ-followers who are blessed with the opportunity to love and support our kiddos every day. When the children leave ILDS, we want to ensure that they are socially prepared for the world ahead. We want them to embody and understand kindness, love and compassion. Most importantly, we want them to know that they are loved. Loved by others but more so by our good and gracious God. We provide a safe and loving environment where the children can learn, thrive, grow and, most importantly, BE LITTLE. Our everyday goal is to focus on the good and the joyful, celebrate small successes and embrace challenges with a happy and hopeful heart.

YANKEE CANDLE FUND-RAISING

THANK YOU for your efforts so far in our Yankee Candle Fundraiser! We are looking forward to seeing how many candles we can sell to raise some great funds for our Day School. If you haven’t started, no worries! There is still plenty of time. Order forms are due Tuesday, October 25. Let us know if you have any questions.

THANKS AGAIN!

HOME REMEDIES FROM COLUMBIA:

Over the past year, we’ve been blessed to have TWO teachers join us from Bogota, Columbia. One day, Ms. Claudia noticed a small piece of red paper on one of the students’ foreheads. Ms. Francy explained it’s a home remedy that her mother in Columbia shared with her to cure hiccups. That story inspired this section.

With LOVE from Columbia:

- For hiccups, cut a small piece of red paper, moisten it and place it on the child’s forehead.
- For a nosebleed, place a coin on the child’s forehead and have them look up.
- For small cuts, place coffee in the wound to help it heal.

FUNNY, FUNNY KIDS!

- Ms. Cleo was counting in Spanish, she said CINCO (5) and Evan yelled “TACO” (Starfish)
- Quinn was telling her mom a story that Ms. Judith had shared with them in the Sharks after-school program. Being from England, this was the first time Ms. Judith shared the story with any kids in the United States—the kids were so excited when they heard that! Quinn told her mom “We were the FIRST Americans and Ameri-KIDS to hear this story.” (Sharks)
- Elijah was having an “argument” with his mom. When he realized she was right, he said, “Ok, fine. I stand corrected.” (Penguins)
- Taylor was joking with the kids and said “NO WAY, JOSE!”. Logan quickly looked at her and said, “No, I’m Logan.” (Koalas)
- At a stop light, Ms. Diane asked the kiddos if anyone knew how to say red in Spanish. Ryleigh quickly raised her hand and yelled, “STOP!” (Penguins)

NOW ACCEPTING NEW STUDENTS!

Thank you, Shark parents, for the recent donations of classroom supplies! We appreciate your help! We love adding new things to our classroom supply/center rotation! We could still use some supplies—if you need a list, please see one of the Shark teachers!

THANKS AGAIN!

ILDS NOW ACCEPTING NEW STUDENTS!

Please spread the word—for a LIMITED TIME, ILDS will waive the Registration Fee for any new student who enrolls before December 1. And, if you refer them, you’ll receive $100 off your next month’s tuition. It’s a WIN-WIN!

SILENT AUCTION ITEMS

We need silent auction items for the Spooktacular. If you have anything you’d like to donate, even an old something from your home, please bring it to the front office before Wednesday, October 19. Thank you for your donations!
